

Statute No. 11 – Admissions

1. The Academic Council approves:
 - (a) policy on the academic aspects of admission of students to the University and
 - (b) the courses and majors which have a quota limiting the total number of students who may be admitted.

The Council may delegate this authority to a committee of the University. Every such delegation is revocable by the Council, and no delegation shall prevent the Council carrying out the responsibilities imposed on it by this Statute.
2. Responsibility for determining the levels of admission quotas and targets rests with the appropriate Deputy Vice Chancellor with responsibility for these matters. The Deputy Vice Chancellor will exercise this power only after consultation with the relevant staff.
 - (a) Decisions on the admission of individual coursework students are made in accordance with policy approved by Academic Council by the director of the area responsible for the admission of coursework students to the University.
 - (b) Decisions on the admission of individual students to study for a postgraduate research degree are made in accordance with policy approved by Academic Council by the manager of the office responsible for graduate studies.
