

Statute No. 26 – Student Misconduct

This Statute should be read in conjunction with the Student Discipline Regulations

1. This Statute comes into operation on the day it is published in the Government Gazette.

Regulations

2. Regulations will be made under this Statute for the discipline of students of the University.

The Regulations will specify:

- (a) the misconduct for which a student may be disciplined by the University;
- (b) the procedure for dealing with allegations of misconduct made against a student;
- (c) the penalties that may be imposed on a student if any allegation of misconduct is upheld;
- (d) the capacity for an appeal against any finding of misconduct against a student;
- (e) any other matters which the Senate considers necessary to give effect to this Statute and the Regulations.

Repeal

3. Statute No 23 - Student Discipline is hereby repealed.

Transitional Provisions

4. On the date the Regulations are made, any disciplinary action previously taken, commenced or implemented under Statute No. 23 – Student Discipline shall be completed in accordance with the provisions of Statute No. 23.
5. Any allegations of misconduct made against a student after the date the Regulations are made, shall be dealt with under the Regulations notwithstanding that the matter giving rise to the allegations may have taken place prior to the date upon which the Regulations are made.
